T he weather last week during the National Western Stock Show at Denver was absolutely beautiful. Record

🙀 crowda jambe the greatest livestock show

isitors through our office during the show, and it was immediately evident that weather was uppermost in most all of our visitors

"Ham" Wilson, ex-ecutive secretary of the Mabama Cattlemen'i Asun., the nation's largest state associa tion, incidentally, told us that that part of the peanuts, soybeans last summor were half of normal. He told us about attending a big bull sale and seeing ponds dry that have never been dry before.

Another visitor, Johnny Jenkins, publisher of Live-stock Breeder Journal, Macon, Ga., conccurred that subsoil moisture in Georgia was as dry as he could remember. This information, along with what we know as one of the through major cattle states of Missouri, Texas, Nebrasha, Iowa and all the others, makes the unanticipated liquidation of beef cownumbers throughout the country the big story of 1980. This last fall, with eding stock, marketmer nave been telling us.

Some people in the industry believe traders on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange last week over-reacted to the 23-state cattleon-feed report, mainly because the yield grade 4 cattle may have al-ready been gone three weeks after being counted in the USDA

CNS quoted one trade analyst as saying that the December marketings fig-ure, at 101% of a year earlier, backs up evidence indicating heavy near-term supplies and potential pressure on February. But the seven-state placements figure, which was 17% below a year earlier, the June live cattle contract, according to the analyst.

Most visitors agreed that the next few weeks are critical ones for the cattle industry in 1981. Slaughter rates continue to exceed those of a year ago, some days as much as by 14%, and generous molsture is reeded at this point in

has won the show. The reserve choice was Lea Jensen's steer, (bottom left), also a Chianina/Angus cross from El Reno, Okla. Wilber Plaugher (lower right) helped build morale at the sale of these and other steers, but once the sale got rolling, there was no clowning around. Lebsack's grand champion steer sold for $80,000 to Pete Gilbert, Denver, Colo. (Staff reserve champion bull, DLOW Ebony 31L. This black son sired by Gibraltar had made a lot of friends, and after an active bidding session, Tri J Cattle Co., Firebaugh, Calif., paid $13,000 to get ownership of this popular calf consigned by W.L. Lowrance & Son.

Yackley-CMC Cattle Co., Onida, S.D., exhibited the grand champion purebred female. CMC Miss Crystal, many times champion at other major livestock shows, is a big, feminine daughter of Gibraltar born Jan. 25, 1979. The bidding on Crystal was rapid and active, with a lot of breeders wanting to add this outstanding female to thier herd. Ray and Elsle Hason of Fort Collins, Colo., had the final bid of

There was just a handful of percentage cattle in the sale but those entered had quality to burn. Superman, a very popular consignment from the JCI. Cattle Co. and Munson Limousin, Vinita, Okla., captured the grund champion percentage bull award. He is a 9/21/79 son of Galant Guy CLR 4G and topped the percentage sale at $7000 going to Gordon Schuppe, Iliff, Colo.

The reserve champion percentage bull, Mr. Masercharge, 9/18/79 by Master Charge, went to Keffeler Ranch, Inc., Sturgis, S.D. for $4600.

The champion percentage female came from James C. Linthicum, Jr., Welch, Okla., Miss Guy 567L, 3/20/79 by Galant Guy CLR4G, and went to 3M Cattle Co., Mayer, Ariz., for $4800.

Jim Foster & Son, Mexico Mo., paid $8300 for the reserve champion percentage female, CKBC Miss Top View, 5/12/79 by Mr. Governor 1515H. She was consigned by Todd Small, Weich, Okla.

show held during the first days of the National Western Stock Show, Denver, Colo. was filled with pride for his breed. This was the first time the Limousin breed had shown their cattle "on the hill," and many of the breeders talked about acceptance and approval of their breed by the livestock industry. The show was indeed a showcase of the breed's best animals, and Judge Jerry Fitzgeruld. Harrison, Neb., said that he felt the champions he chose were representative of the Limousin breed.

The large crowd of breeders and spectators that watched the show applanded Judge Fitzgerald's choice for grand champion hall, GKF Canadian Pacific. This big, correct son of Eclair CIM 51 and out of Miss Glenkair Helice CIF 360 was also named the champion senior bull on his way to the championship.

The champion was calved on Jan. 15, 1979 and was entered by Glenkuir Farms, Grandview, Manitoba, Canuda. Reserve champion bull honors went to Black Ace NPM, a May 18, 1978 son of Dynamo NIM, shown by Blackjack Cattle Co., Chattanooga, Okla. and Beaver Croek Ranch, North Platte, Neb. He was also named the reserve champion senior

In the female division of the show, the grand champion female was the senior champion, CMC Mils Snowflake 102L. First ever 'on the hill' show parades Limousin breed tops Hereford breeders bring best for 'jubilee' centennial show

By JAY PURCHASE

Hereford breeders only brought their best to the March 27, 1980 calf, Wild-1981 National Western cut Outrider 18M. Stock Show. They have been preparing for this show for a long-time and as one breeder said, ''I don't have to bring too many, just one—the best

This year the Herefords were in the spotlight. It was their centennial Hereford show and was celebrated in conjunction with the National Western's 75th jubi-

Over 6000 Hereford enthusiasts crowded the stadium arena to watch the historical event. They were from the U.S. and eight other countries. The entries were up over 100 from last year and made the judging very tough for udge Steve Radakovich. Earlham, Iowa and associate judge Dr. Bob Dropp, Stillwater, Texas.

They selected for the grand champion bull of the show, one that had caught the judges eves in the strong competitive late apring yearling class. He was LeGrand Domino A157, an April 15, 1979 son of Montana Domino 74005. This big framed, growthy bull was shown by V Bar Ranch, Stanton, Texas and Bright Bros. Ranch, Le-

For their reserve grand champion, the judges selected their earlier senior champion SC Classic ET. This Sept. 16, 1978 son of SC Mark Arthur S5 was owned by Schroeder Cattle Co., Palisade, Neb.; TT Herefords, Connell, Wash. and Morgan and Marcotte Cattle Co., Sedgwick, Colo.

The junior bull calf champion came out of the senior bull calf class, B&C L1 Adv Dom 9224, a son of HH Advance C756 was born on Aug. 20, 1979 and was shown by B&C Cattle Co., Miami, Texas.

change with new bill

Most grain shipments coming into export elevators at export port locations will no longer be required to be officially weighed, a USDA official said.

Leland E. Bartelt, administrator of USDA's Foderal Grain Inspection Service, said the changes were required under legislation which became offective Oct. 14.

GROWING FUTURE-AL fred Gruetzmacher, chairman of the Chicago Board of Trade, addressed the American Cattle Conference, held recently in Danver. Gruetzmacher lauded the "golden age of capitalism" and noted that the growing number of filtures contracts being taken out was proof of this
